

React Project

...

React Project File Structure

All of the files created should be placed in the src folder

All of the API related files should be placed in this folder

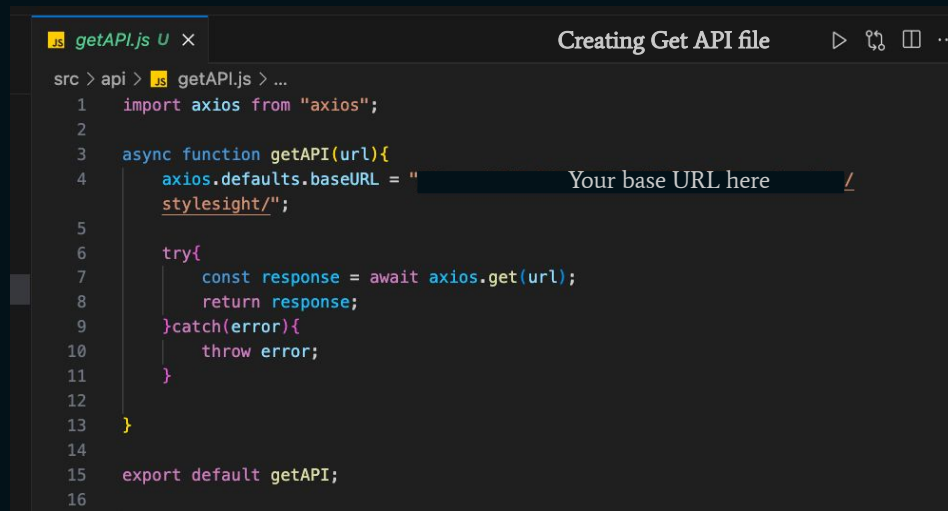

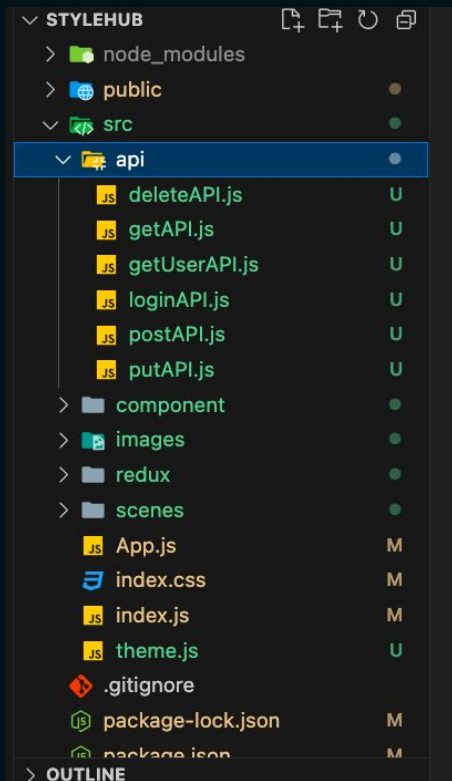

All the common components throughout the scenes or section should be placed here

All of the images should be placed here

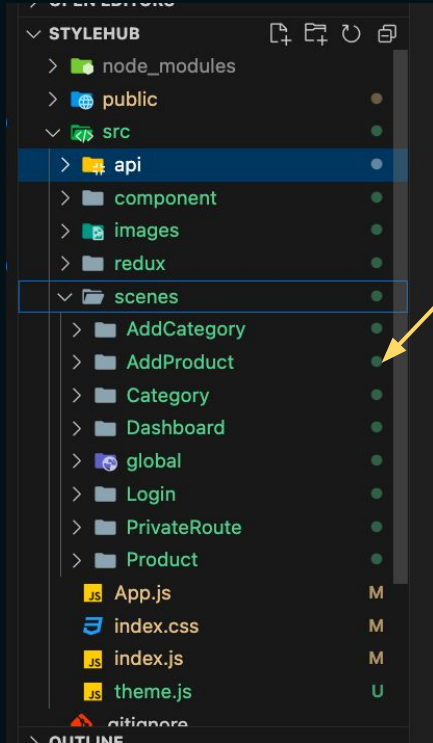

All of the redux related files should be kept here

All of the section folder should be created here

API Folder and Files

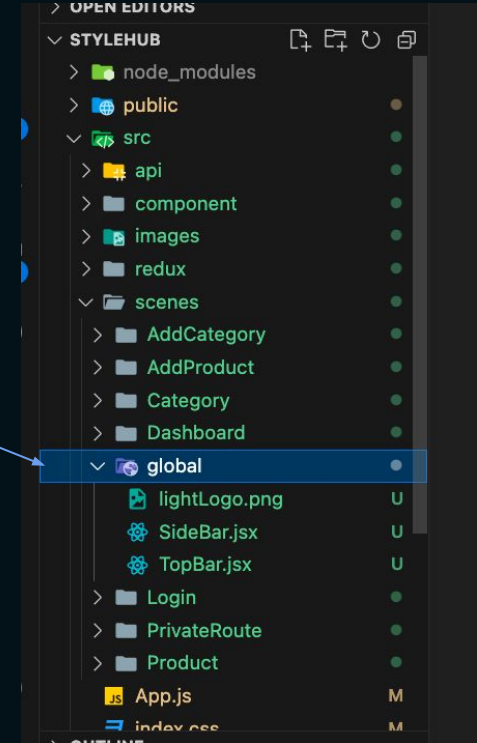

Scenes/Section Folder

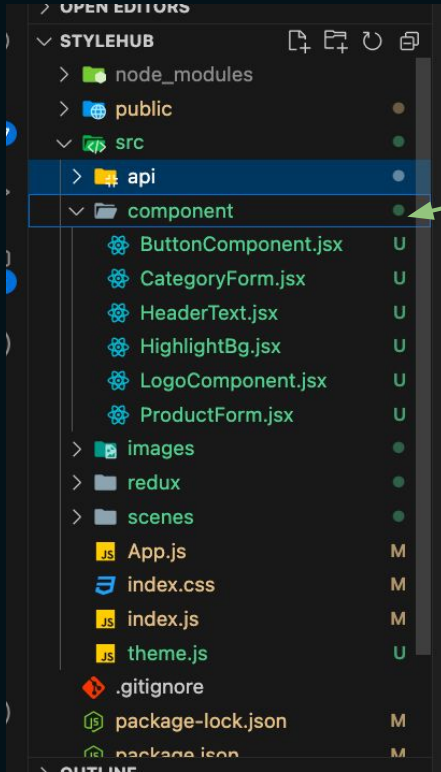

All the AddProduct section related components are placed here

All the Global sections such as header, footer, logo, etc are placed here

Components Folder

All the common components are placed here.
For example,
Buttons, Header Text ,etc.